

considered a recreational vehicle. And, with that clarification, I would move for adoption of the amendment.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Wesely. Discussion on the amendment by Senator Wesely? Senator Pirsch.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Senator Wesely, did I...thank you, Mr. Speaker. Members of the body, this deals with recreational vehicles and when they can be used or where they can be used?

SENATOR WESELY: No, it's just there's a definition, they do...they have some regulatory oversight on these types of things. They have manufactured housing. They have modular housing. And recreational vehicles also come under this. And all this is is that it's a definitional thing that they said they needed to clarify what a recreational vehicle is. But they're not the kind you're thinking of, I don't believe. I don't think (interruption).

SENATOR PIRSCH: Okay, exactly what you're doing is amending the vehicle statutes and saying of such size or weight as not to require special highway movement permits...

SENATOR WESELY: Right.

SENATOR PIRSCH: ...when towed by a motorized vehicle and gross...and of gross trailer area less than 320 square feet?

SENATOR WESELY: Yeah. If they need a permit then they have to fall under whatever permit statutes there are, whatever. So if they don't have to...it's something federally required so I don't know quite...

SENATOR PIRSCH: And that's in these sections in our Health Department sections?

SENATOR WESELY: Yeah, the Health Department has oversight in this area evidently.

SENATOR PIRSCH: Oh, okay. Well, as a member of the Transportation Committee, I'm a little taken aback because...(laughter). Just one question then. The less than 320 square feet, that is in accordance with our motor vehicle requirements?
